Signature (on bronze base)
MODELLED BY AVG. SAINT-GAVDENS PARIS MDCCCLXXIX-MDCCCLXXX.

Cast made by permission of Commissioner of Parks, Borough of Manhattan. NOTE. The original monument stands at the northeast corner of Madison Square Garden, New York City. The stone pedestal forms a semicircular seat, divided by the pier upon which the figure stands, and terminating at either end in carved dolphins. Upon the central pier is a symbolic sword, plunged down through the waves which flow across it and over two seated female figures carved in low relief at either side. The seat is raised three steps from the level of the park, and the space about its foot is paved with pebbles in which a bronze crab is sunk. The inscription which completes the decoration of the stone seat-back reads in part as follows: DAVID GLASGOW FARRAGYT, THAT THE MEMORY OF A DARING AND SAGACIOUS COMMANDER AND GENTLE GREAT-SOVLED MAN WHOSE LIFE FROM CHILD-HOOD WAS GIVEN TO HIS COVNTRY BYT WHO SERVED HER SVPREMELY IN THE WAR FOR THE VNION MDCCCLXI-MDCCC-LXV MAY BE PRESERVED AND HONORED ... HIS COVNTRYMEN HAVE SET VP THIS MONVMENT A.D. MDCCCLXXXI. BORN ... MDCCCI. (Follows a biographical sketch.) DIED ...MDCCCLXX.

This was the first statue commissioned from Saint-Gaudens for a public place. It was modeled in Paris, exhibited there in the Salon of 1880, and unveiled in New York in 1881, marking an epoch in American sculpture and decorative art.

AMOR CARITAS

Plaster cast from bronze high relief, signed and dated 18[87]. Total H. 8 ft. 9 in.; W. 4 ft. Within a shallow niche, a standing female figure, with upward curving wings partly surrounding a tablet which rests upon the head and is lightly held by the upraised hands. The figure is directed front, the head and eyes very slightly to the right, and the sandaled feet are partly visible beneath the long robe. Girdle and crown of passion-flowers.

Inscription (on tablet above head)
AMOR CARITAS.

Signature
AVGVSTVS SAINT-GAVDENS MDCCCLXX[XVII].

Lent by Mrs. Augustus Saint-Gaudens.

NOTE. The original idea of this was embodied in the figures on the Morgan tomb at Hartford, Conn., which were burned. From this spring the figure of the Maria Smith tomb at Newport, and the Amor Caritas of the Luxembourg, of which this is a replica.

45

DEACON SAMUEL CHAPIN ("THE PURITAN")

Plaster cast from original bronze statue in Springfield, Mass., signed and dated 1887. Heroic size. Stalwart figure of a man walking; Puritan costume, with a peak-crowned hat, long flowing cloak, and carrying a staff. Head directed to the front, eyes down; right arm extended and thrown back, with hand grasping head of staff; left arm flexed with hand supporting book, the edges of which are to the fore. Branches of pine needles scattered underfoot.

Inscription (from marble base of original)
1595 ANNO DOMINI 1675. DEACON SAMUEL CHAPIN. ONE OF THE FOUNDERS OF SPRINGFIELD.

Signature (on bronze base of original)
AUGUSTUS SAINT-GAUDENS SCULPTOR,
NEW YORK MDCCCLXXXVI.

Lent by Mrs. Augustus Saint-Gaudens.

NOTE. A similar statue (not a replica) called "The Pilgrim" was made for the New England Society of Pennsylvania and stands in City Hall Square, Philadelphia.

The head was remodeled and changed; changes were also made in the cloak, and the book was reversed so that the lettering "Holy Bible" on the back is seen.

46

NOTE. A reduction from Number 47.

49

ABRAHAM LINCOLN (STANDING FIGURE)

Plaster cast from bronze statue, signed and dated 1887. Heroic size. Standing before a chair, figure directed to the front, head slightly bent, right arm thrust behind him, left grasping lapel of coat, left foot advanced, in an attitude characteristic of Lincoln when rising to make a speech.

Signature

AUGUSTUS SAINT-GAUDENS SCULPTOR MDCCCLXXXVII.

Cast made by permission of the Commissioners of Lincoln Park, Chicago.

NOTE. The original statue stands at the south end of Lincoln Park in Chicago, the idea of an audience-chamber being further carried out in the great circular stone exedra, sixty feet across, which surrounds the low pedestal, in the design of which Mr. Saint-Gaudens collaborated with the late Stanford White, architect. The inscription is on the pedestal and back of the exedra, and includes among other things an extract from the Cooper Union speech of 1860:

LET US HAVE FAITH THAT RIGHT MAKES MIGHT, AND IN THAT FAITH LET US TO THE END DARE TO DO OUR DUTY AS WE UNDERSTAND IT.

Compare the seated statue of Lincoln executed in 1907 (Number 102).

50

ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON

Electrotype reduction from the model of the relief as originally designed; in rectangular form; signed and dated New York, September, 1887. H. 65% in.; w. 13½ in. Full-length figure, seen in profile, looking left, reclining in a bed, the lower limbs partly concealed by the coverlet; the left hand holding a manuscript, the knees being drawn up to support it, and the right hand poised in air, with a cigarette between the fingers. A border of ivy leaves and berries extends across the top of the plaque, with the inscription and signature written horizontally below it, the figure of the winged horse occurring between the first two stanzas of the inscription.

Inscription (Stevenson's poem beginning)
YOUTH NOW FLEES ON FEATHERED FOOT
FAINT AND FAINTER SOUNDS THE FLUTE.

(ending)

LIFE IS OVER. LIFE WAS GAY.
WE HAVE COME THE PRIMROSE WAY.

TO ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON FROM HIS FRIEND AUGUSTUS SAINT-GAUDENS. NEW-YORK SEPTEMBER MDCCCLXXXVII.

Signature: As given above.

NOTE. The sittings for the head and shoulders took place in New York while Stevenson was ill there on his way to the Adirondacks. The hands were modeled from studies made at Manasquan just before he left for Samoa.

51

ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON

Bronze circular medallion, low relief, signed and dated 1887. D. (vertical) 353% in.; (horizontal) 34½ in. Similar in design and inscription to the model described under Number 50, but differing as follows: foot of bed and lower quarter of figure not visible; ivy border and verses of inscription made to conform to the circular shape of the medallion. Instead of dedication "To Robert Louis Stevenson," &c., the present example reads:

REPLICA MADE FOR CHARLES DEERING
BY HIS FRIEND AVGVSTVS SAINT-GAVDENS. ASPET MCMVI.

Signature (below poem)
AVGVSTVS SAINT-GAVDENS. MDCCC-LXXXVII.

Lent by Mr. Charles Deering.

NOTE. The "dedication" varies with the name of the recipient, and the earlier replicas differed in minor details of modeling.

A bronze reduction is in the Luxembourg.

51 A

ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON

Plaster cast from rectangular bronze memorial tablet in Saint Giles's Cathedral, Edinburgh, Scotland; low relief, signed and dated 1887-1892.

H. (of relief proper) 5 ft. 7 in., (of plinth) 1 ft.

10 in.; W. (of relief proper) 9 ft. 1½ in., (of plinth) 9 ft. 2 in. A variant of the same design, the figure being the same, but shown in full length, covered with a travelling-rug in place of the coverlet, having a quill pen in hand in place of the cigarette, and resting upon a couch in place of the bed, with leaves of manuscript scattered upon the floor, and instead of the ivy border, extending across the top and drooping at sides of the relief a garland of laurel interwoven at the ends with Scotch heather and Samoan hibiscus. The outline of a ship is shown in the lower right corner.

Inscription

(Above, Stevenson's "Prayer" beginning)

MONUMENT TO GENERAL WIL-LIAM TECUMSEH SHERMAN

Plaster model for bronze group, signed and dated 1903. Heroic size. Figure of General Sherman on horseback, in uniform, the military cape blown back by the wind, the head bare, directed to the front, hat in left hand at side, reining horse with the right, the whole poised forward from the stirups as if in motion. Before the horse and rider, walks a winged female figure—Nike-Eirene, or Victory-Peace—laurel crowned, right arm extended and holding in her left hand a palm branch.

Lent by Mrs. Augustus Saint-Gaudens.

NOTE. The studies for the head of Sherman were made from life in 1888, the commission for the group being received and work begun about 1892 and continued in Paris in 1897; the horse and rider without the Victory being exhibited at the Salon of the Champ de Mars in 1899, the whole in plaster at the Paris Exposition of 1900, and, with alterations, at the Pan-American Exposition, Buffalo, in 1901. Eleven years in all of study and alteration elapsed before the group was finished and unveiled on Decoration Day, 1903, at the south entrance to Central Park, New York. The inscription is on the marble pedestal.

Compare the Sherman bust (Number 56).

UNITED STATES GOLD COINS, 1907

(1)

TEN-DOLLAR GOLD PIECE, 1907
[a] (Obverse) Woman's head, in profile, lips

parted, directed left; wearing Indian head-dress. Above, thirteen stars. Border, a hair line, sharply raised. Exergue: 1907.

[b] (Reverse) American eagle, standing, directed left; olive branch and sheaf of arrows in claws. Border, a hair line, sharply raised. Legend: UNITED · STATES · OF · AMERICA · Field: · E·PLURIBUS·UNUM · Exergue: · TEN·DOLLARS · Edge, forty-six stars.

NOTE. The coin as first struck; not issued, as being in too high relief and having too sharp an edge.

(2, a, b)

Similar to the preceding, but in lower relief, and having a wider border.

NOTE. The second coin struck; but not issued for similar reasons.

(3, a, b)

Similar to the preceding, but in still lower relief and with still wider border.

NOTE. The coin as issued.

(4) TWENTY-DOLLAR GOLD PIECE, 1907

more than one-sixteenth of an inch in width, with inner border of forty-six stars. Legend: LIBERTY. Field: MCMVII and Signature: (Monogram, ASTG).

[b] (Reverse) Flying eagle, directed left; rising sun below, with rays extending to border. Border, a hair line. Legend: UNITED STATES OF AMERICA TWENTY DOLLARS Edge: E (star) PLURIBUS (star) UNUM (eleven stars). Note. Struck in the medal-press. Not issued because in too high relief.

(5, a, b)

Similar in type to the preceding, but in low relief, with wider border for reverse and date 1907 in lower right field of obverse.

NOTE. The coin as issued.

PORTRAIT OF AUGUSTUS SAINT-GAUDENS BY KENYON COX, 1908 Life size, half-length figure, seen from the back, head in profile, directed right; right arm extended, hand engaged in modeling, left holding a lump of clay and a modeling tool.

Signature KENYON COX—1908.

Lent by several gentlemen.

NOTE. The original picture was painted, on a smaller scale, in the sculptor's 36th Street Studio, in 1887. It was destroyed in the fire in his studio in Cornish, N. H., in 1904. This replica was painted in 1908. The sculptor is represented at work upon the relief portrait of William M. Ghase. Behind his head, to the left, is a solar print of one of the V anderbilt caryatids. A cast of the "Unknown Lady" of the Louvre stands beyond. Next is the bronze relief of Homer Saint-Gaudens as an infant, and beyond that the plaster relief of Miss Lee. The scaffolding behind the easel is the back of the Shaw Memorial. [Signed] Kenyon Cox.

A PHOTOGRAPH OF AUGUSTUS SAINT-GAUDENS AT ABOUT SE-VENTEEN YEARS OF AGE

Lent by Miss Lucille A. Le Brethon.

NOTE. The following is a transcription of an explanatory letter addressed to the Secretary of the Saint-Gaudens Memorial Exhibition by Miss Lucille A. Le Brethon:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 17th, and delayed answering as I wished to procure from my niece, Mrs. Arnold Moser, 214 East 15th Street, a topax cameo, the very first piece of work made by Augustus Saint-Gaudens under my father's tuition. The onyx cameo which I am also sending you for exhibition is one of the last things made by him while with my father, Jules Le Brethon. There can be no doubt of the authenticity of these two cameos (which my father always kept and prized very much), as the accompanying photograph shows him at work in my father's studio. I am sending the two cameos and photograph under separate cover by registered mail.
